EVOLUTION OF THE SPECIES

In recent years have seen the emergence of a new generation of craft distillers in Italy. From the now well-known Italian gins to classic grappas, not forgetting vodkas, vermouths, bitters and amaros, the small producers are united by passion, research, attention to raw materials and sustainability of production.

The result is often surprising and exciting.

Sapiens Spirits' mission is to contribute to the evolution of Italian craft spirits producers, becoming a point of reference for the growth of small artisanal realities of excellence abroad.

Thanks to a vast knowledge of international markets and a consolidated network of distribution partners, we take care of brand promotion and product sales, giving distillers the opportunity to focus exclusively on production.

The missing link between Italian craft spirits producers and distributors worldwide. A new step in the evolution.

IDEAL CONDITIONS

Evolution needs the right factors, the right conditions for the necessary changes to take place.

At Sapiens, first and foremost, an in-depth industry expertise resides. We know how markets work, we have seen them grow and we have helped shape them. From marketing to sales to logistics. The spirits world is our natural environment.

Experience also means knowledge. Over the years we have built up a multi-channel distribution and sales network that we continuously improve and update. Good relationships are our energy.

SAINT MARCEL VALLE D'AOSTA
LA VALDÔTAINE
DISTILLERIA DI MONTAGNA

Small mountain distillery which draws its inspiration from these traditions, where fine old copper stills produce hand-crafted spirits. Rare mountain botanicals are infused and then carefully distilled. Traditional alembics, the local alpine ingredients and mineral-rich waters give the special mountain character.

ACQUEVERDI GIN

Next to the mountain village of Saint-Marcel, at the head of the valley gushes an extraordinary spring called the Acqueverdi. The unique mineral content of its waters turns the rocks over which it tumbles into dazzling bright emeralds. Gentian, malva and rosa alpina grow in profusion on the banks of the stream. It is this water and these mountain herbs that make the gin so unique.

VERMOUTH

The formula for Verney was inspired by a document attributed to Abbé Edouard Berard, a botanist from the Aosta Valley. The recipe for his special "mountain wine" called for parietta (Savory) benefort (Artemisia or Wormwood) as well as the aromatic sarioula or Alpine Thyme. These mountain herbs are the essence of the uniqueness of Verney.

PELITIS VERMOUTH ROUG

The twenty-second formula has been the trademark of this Muscat-based vermouth for more than sixty years. Chosen as the recipe for the supply of the English Royal Household, it is characterised by an aromatic complex in which the citrus notes of cedar, elderflower and gentianella stand out in perfect balance with the bitter persistence of absinthe and quassia.

SAINT MARCEL  VALLE D'AOSTA
DISTILLERIA DI MONTAGNA

Small mountain distillery which draws its inspiration from these traditions, where fine old copper stills produce hand-crafted spirits. Rare mountain botanicals are infused and then carefully distilled. Traditional alembics, the local alpine ingredients and mineral-rich waters give the special mountain character.

GRAPPA BLANC DE MORGEX

This Grappa is batch distilled in small copper stills in tiny batches from the vinaccia of the Prié Blanc grape. The strain known as Blanc de Morgex is considered an autoctonous variety of the Aosta Valley; it produces a Grappa of great finesse with intense aromas of fresh grapes, elegant, soft and pleasant flavours with hints of traditional renette apple and pineapple.
